Cookie management

A cookie is a small information file stored by your Internet browser on the terminal (e.g. your computer's hard drive). During its period of validity, a cookie file enables its issuer to recognise the terminal concerned each time this terminal accesses digital content containing cookies from the same issuer.

Our cookie does not contain any personal identification information; it simply records information relating to the browsing of a terminal (computer, smartphone, etc.) on our site. It allows us to :

» to establish statistics and volumes of visits and use of the various elements making up our site

» adapt the presentation of our site to the display preferences of your terminal (resolution, operating system used, etc.).

This website uses cookies to measure the audience of Google Analytics. You can accept or refuse these cookies via the banner displayed at the bottom of the site.
If you wish to change your choice, you can do so easily in the preferences of your browser, notifications menu.

Intellectual property
